Description

This large old house is in a quiet location and although ready to move into, still has scope for improvement. There is plenty of land with space for a pool and a lovely view as well!The last house at the end of a quiet road, this has beautiful views out towards Avlaki and the coast of Albania. Most of the land belonging to the property is at the back of the house, and slopes gently up an olive grove. There would be plenty of room for a swimming pool and terrace (with a sea view) to be constructed. The house is old, but has already been renovated by its present owners and is ready to occupy. The front door leads straight into the main living room which has a beamed ceiling and an open fireplace in one corner adding to the cozy atmosphere. An attractive arched brick doorway takes you though into the kitchen, and another door into the fairly large bathroom. A wooden staircase from the sitting room goes up to three double bedrooms, each with a spacious balcony overlooking the sea view. There is a large landing with space for an additional bathroom to be built and a door to the rear of the house. At the back, across a terrace, is an old building in need of renovation. This was originally the kitchen of the house and there is plenty of room here for additional guest accommodation. In addition, also included, is an old stone building once used as an olive press which could be converted into further accommodation.
