Description

Timeless Elegance, Exceptional Privacy and Effortless EntertainingAn exciting new listing in the sought after Mooikloof Equestrian Estate, this beautifully symmetrical home combines refined design with the tranquillity of an established garden setting. Magnificent, lush green trees surround the property, creating exceptional privacy and a peaceful sense of retreat.Designed for relaxed family living, the home offers a cosy private cinema room, a TV lounge and an open-plan dining area alongside a well-appointed kitchen. A spacious separate scullery and laundry, complemented by a workroom and storage area, provide excellent practical space with convenient access to the garages.Downstairs, the living and dining areas open through stacking doors onto an expansive patio, creating a lovely connection between the home and garden. Overlooking the sparkling splash pool and inviting lapa, this is a wonderful setting for leisurely afternoons, family gatherings and entertaining friends.The main home offers a downstairs bedroom and bathroom, with three bedrooms and three full bathrooms upstairs. Positioned in its own separate wing, the master suite is a particularly private retreat, complete with a coffee station and beautiful views of the tranquil gardens.A separate flatlet adds further versatility, offering one bedroom, en-sute bathroom, a small study and a lovely open-plan living area and kitchen ideal for extended family or guests seeking their own space.Six garages, ample additional parking and extra carports cater generously for vehicles and visitors.Adding to the property’s appeal is an extensive solar system that supports an almost off-the-grid lifestyle, complemented by a generator, a strong borehole and two water tanks. Together, these features offer valuable independence and everyday convenience.A distinctive family home where timeless architecture, leafy privacy and generous entertaining spaces come together in a beautiful equestrian estate setting.
