Description

A small complex of apartments and house, in a 'village style' design very close to the beach in the west coast village of Paramonas. The properties are currently individual holiday lets. They would be ideal for someone looking for a live/work opportunity. The accommodation consists of a one-level house split into 2 x one-bedroom apartments, plus 1 x 1 bedroom apartment plus a studio, which could be joined to make one house, and a small one-bedroom cottage in a plot of land. The properties are already holiday rentals and would be a good opportunity for someone wanting a live/work situation, as the cottage could be ideal owner accommodation. They are set amongst other properties in Greek 'village style' and are in good condition. The village is well known for its lovely sandy beach, and 2 popular tavernas. The traditional village of Agios Matheos with all its amenities is only 10-minute drive, and Corfu Town is 40 minutes.
