Description

House with 1 kitchen, 4 bedrooms, 1 office, 1 dressing room, 2 bathrooms with WC, and 1 WC. 1 garage, 3 garden - Ideally situated on the very first heights of Ribérac, within walking distance of the shops. Hidden in the vegetation at the back of the town, this house offers a large fitted kitchen, leading on the right wing to a laundry room and an artist's studio which could become a bedroom. On the left wing, a very luminous living room opens onto a bucolic terrace overlooking the open view and the church steeples. The ground floor has a bedroom, a separate toilet, a bathroom with shower, bath and toilet, and a study or another bedroom as you wish. On the first floor, two bedrooms overlook the beautiful view, a dressing room completes the whole and can be used as an office, and finally a large bathroom with again shower, bath and toilet complete the living area. A garage can protect a vehicle, and 3 garden sheds, the large one with a tiled floor, can be used to store garden equipment. Beautiful garden, planted and laid-out. Possibility to buy partly furnished.
