Description

Stunning furnished apartment in the heart of medieval Sarlat old town. 2 beds with private balcony and terrace - This is a professionally designed and finished property in a handsome courtyard within historic central Sarlat. It is perfect for a short-term rental investment and will attract tourist interest throughout the year. It's a two bedroom property with a modern kitchen and stunning living / dining room. Every angle provides charm and the various period features allow you to appreciate the history of the building - it has high ceilings and huge bright windows to let the light in. There are stone fire places, wooden floors and a pretty terrace to take your morning coffee on. The house is a stones throw from the markets, shops, bars and cafes while also sitting slightly back from the noise and main thoroughfares.
