Description

Stone Farmhouse in courtyard design with independent luxury gite. Large barn, fields and woodland near Sarlat - Charming old farmhouse complete with huge barn, courtyard and second guest house ideal for friends or holiday letting. The main house is full of original features and offers large, bright living spaces. The open plan design of the living room opens into the large kitchen / diner. There are two bedrooms and a shower room with WC. There is the possibility to substantially increase the living space by renovating the the attic or the cave. The guest house is roofed in the local Lauze stone and also retains its historic charm and character features. It has been tastefully renovated to a modern standard as a large, private, one bedroom house with freestanding bath, private courtyard and wood fired hot tub.
