Description

Here we have one of those historical assets that has witnessed so many events and people come and go, a place where locals chatted, laughed and put the world to rights! It was a place to meet, to share, to live and of course enjoy good home cooking and flavours that took us back to our childhood. Nostalgia is one of the most contrasting sensations that exist, where memories come flooding back, filling us with joy and sadness at the same time. Now we have a second chance, another opportunity to reignite the thriving business that was - a bar/cafeteria, with a dining area, bar and space to the rear for a kitchen, storage and small patio that leads to an outdoor toilet. Alternatively, if what you are looking for is a housing conversion project, you have a blank canvas in front of you, a ground floor flat in the centre of Mahon. All projects require planning permission in line with current planning regulations. Let this be your new chapter of this beautiful story.
