Description

Beautiful house with large private garden close to all the amenities and the sandy beaches of the Western part of Imperia, named Porto Maurizio. Apartment with large garden and private garage for sale in Imperia. Situated in a nice location near all major amenities, this property is the ideal place for a comfortable lifestyle. Its recent construction, characterized by impeccable attention to detail, offers a welcoming and modern environment for those seeking to reside with every comfort without sacrificing practicality. The living unit comprises a completely independent access to the garden. A well-maintained driveway leads to the entrance of the house, which consists of a living room with kitchen, ideal for moments of relaxation and conviviality. A hallway separates the living area from the sleeping quarters, comprising two bedrooms and a windowed bathroom. From the living area, it is possible to access the large front porch, perfect for unwinding with a good book, and an adjacent light-shaded structure beside the outdoor kitchen, ideal for enjoying al fresco dining in a charming ambiance. What truly sets this apartment in Imperia apart are the outdoor spaces: a large and cozy garden of approximately 600 square meters, the true gem of the property, enriched with terraced surfaces and well-maintained green areas. The space is so ample and enjoyable that, in addition to the aforementioned outdoor dining area, there is room for a pool, relaxation area, and even a vegetable garden for growing fruits and vegetables. The apartment for sale in Imperia is sold furnished and includes a convenient private garage.
