Description

A 300m2 semi-detached traditional property in a peaceful location in the North of Corfu. Lithari house is a 300m2 detached property, located in the area of Agios Pandeimon on the North of Corfu. The property is divided in three individual spaces, all with their own entrance. On the ground floor you will find an open plan space which at the moment is used as storage but it could be turned into a spacious living space. A stone stair leads to the first floor where 2 individual living space can be found. The smaller apartment has one bedroom, one bathroom and a kitchen dining area. The main house, has a big entrance with an open space living room/dining room area with a fire place and a bathroom with a bathtub. A French door opens to the main living room area and the two bedrooms. The living room has access to the back of the house, which offer a huge veranda which offers full privacy and sea views, also a small stair is leading to the back garden. The upper floor is fully renovated with high end wooden ceilings, floors and doors. The area is very quiet and the area of Acharavi is approximately 10 minute drive.
