Description

This is an ideal level piece of land on the corner of Mountain Road and Bergzicht Road. It is currently zoned as agricultural land, but the potential for high density development or lifestyle complex is waiting for a buyer with an opportunity to turn this into a money maker. The adjacent plot is also available and ideally will be sold to one buyer who can consolidate the land and build a big development. When you see it you will understand why I am excited to present this opportunity to the group of investors/developers who can take this to the next level. There are huge developments going on in the area and this golden nugget is lying there for the right buyer. Do not hesitate to contact me for more information.
