Set away from the village but close to all amenities and services, this magnificent 425 m² manor house dating from the 1850s has been completely renovated with all the elegance of yesteryear and ultra-modern comforts. In all, 6 en suite bedrooms (including a separate guest bedroom), an additional bedroom, two lounges, a fully equipped kitchen and a summer kitchen with sheltered terrace. No work required as everything is in perfect condition. Outside, a swimming pool overlooks a beautifully landscaped garden. With its immense 2.7 ha grounds, home to many fruit and olive trees, overlooking the 'Petite Leyre' river where you can swim, its superb landscaped garden, its authenticity preserved thanks to an exceptional renovation, and its modern facilities such as geothermal heating, this exception in the Landes landscape is a must-see.
