Description

Two attractive newly built villas with private swimming pools and incredible sea views. Perched atop a mountainside overlooking the Ionian Sea, Thalassa Villas offer a luxurious escape with breathtaking panoramic views of Corfu's shimmering coastline. The villas have been recently completed by the owner and are modern in design with large windows to take in the incredible views. Each property has two ensuite bedrooms with access to private sea view terraces. The first villa is over two floors - the open-concept living and dining area includes a fully-equipped modern kitchen and is filled with natural light, offering a seamless transition to the outdoor space. The infinity pool and sun terrace is at the side of the property, ideally positioned to take in the beautiful surroundings. Upstairs there are two bedrooms with ensuite shower rooms. The second villa is all on one floor - with two separate wings connected via a hallway, this property has an equally stunning outlook as its neighbour above. One wing has the modern kitchen with dining and sitting area opening out to the sea view terrace and BBQ area. The second wing has two ensuite bedrooms with access to sea view terraces. The land is divided into two plots - one piece of just over 5500m² with the existing two villas, and an adjoining plot of 2450m² with designs in place for another two villas measuring a total of 186m². The properties are located just below the hamlet of Katavolos, access via a windy country road. The resorts of Nissaki and Barbati are a short drive away, both known for their beautiful beaches and excellent seaside restaurants.
