Description

This stunning Victorian home with both historical charm and contemporary comforts, has the unique distinction of being the one-time home of NJ Governor Voorhees. As you approach, you're welcomed by a picturesque blue stone walkway lined with vibrant roses, setting the tone for the beauty that awaits inside. Step into timeless elegance through the original double doors and take in the grand hallway featuring 10-foot ceilings and open staircase with intricate handrails. This meticulously restored home boasts a large formal parlor with original mantled soapstone fireplace, and a dining room showcasing the craftsmanship of a bygone era. The updated kitchen features custom cherry cabinetry and modern appliances. An intricate pressed metal ceiling adds a touch of vintage flair. A spacious coffered ceiling in family room with original fireplace mantle offers a beautiful retreat for gatherings. A full bath, mud room, and laundry complete the first level. The home's rich hardwood floors continue throughout the second floor where you find 3 spacious bedrooms, and a Carrera marble bathroom with claw-foot tub. The 4th, Primary bedroom, includes a walk-in closet and an en-suite bathroom. An added bonus is a rec room in the basement which is perfect for entertainment. Outside, you find a beautifully landscaped fenced garden with a brick patio. The backyard also includes a 1-car garage with an attached porch for cozy evening viewing of the Raritan River.
