Description

This large villa has panoramic views towards Corfu Town, the mountains and the north east coastline. In a secluded location, the villa is an excellent year round property or perfect for summer rentals. Situated on the summit of a hill between Kato and Ano Korakiana, this property is a blend of traditional and modern styles. The extra wide front door leads into a huge living/dining area with a stone fireplace at one end. The high vaulted ceiling with exposed wood beams adds to the feeling of space and windows all round allow maximum light to flood into the room. The very large kitchen is divided from this area by a half wall/divider surfaced with old bricks, and has a long window overlooking the garden and the spectacular views. A spacious store room at the back of the kitchen houses the central heating boiler and washing machine. Also on the ground floor is a bedroom suite, comprising a large double bedroom with an en-suite shower room. A marble staircase leads up to the first floor and three further bedrooms. The master suite has its own balcony overlooking the gardens and the view to the sea in the distance. There is also an en-suite bathroom. Two further double bedrooms are on the other side of the upper floor, both have windows overlooking the garden and are connected by a shared shower room. The house features traditional style shutters, tiled floors, central heating and air-conditioning, and covered verandahs. The garden is mainly level and there is plenty of space for sunbathing near to the unusual shaped swimming pool whilst enjoying the lovely view. The land is gated, and a driveway leads to a large parking area in front of the house.
