Description

This is it! Multi-generational estate with three separate structures totaling 5,575 square feet. The main house: 4,060 sq feet, guest house: 1,090 sq feet, and detached studio: 425 sq feet. Complete floor plans in photos. Home has investment potential, further subdivision opportunity, and rental possibilities. Boasting a spectacular location just a stroll to Stanford, Town and Country shopping center, Downtown Palo Alto, local area schools and much more! Visit this incredible heritage home built by the architect-owner for his family with meticulous attention to detail. The central location is coupled with the quiet and privacy of the home once you step inside. In the front of the home, a gorgeous mature Oak Tree greets you. The spacious long and deep lot is fully paved with a lush yard in the back. Imagine the possibilities: an intergenerational family estate, a start-up lab for tech employees, or a unique set-up for local Stanford or Castilleja School students. The home is complete with vaulted ceilings, light-drenched interiors, Andersen windows and doors, skylights, and the potential for an elevator to be added. Ample on-site parking for visitors. You can't miss it! Some exterior photos have been digitally enhanced with added landscaping.
