Description

Over your lifetime, this may be the house, and town, you loved the most. You'll reminisce about the puddingstone walls, peonies and hydrangeas. Pulling into the circular drive and the welcoming front porch that says you're home. You'll remember walking everywhere - to schools, lakes, the library, for coffee, or dinner. You'll think back on the historic charm and handsome architectural details. Wainscotting, beamed and coffered ceilings, beautiful refinished hardwood floors, two fireplaces. The living and dining rooms, warm and elegant. But you spent the most time in the spectacular open kitchen and family room addition. High ceilings, oversized windows with beautiful views, crisp white cabinets, tons of pantry storage, quartz and marble countertops, top of the line appliances. You can smell the coffee. In the family room, a cheery arts and crafts fireplace was a cozy focal point. The first-floor office doubled as a bar! In the mudroom, lacrosse sticks were ready for practice in the huge backyard. The laundry was handy there, too! Upstairs, a gorgeous primary suite was your retreat. Custom-built cabinets, two walk-in closets, a stunning marble shower, soaking tub, and dramatic windows. Five additional bedrooms offered room to work, work out, play, and grow. Lastly, you remember the nights with friends on the covered patio. String lights, candles, passing drinks through the bistro window from the "Blue Dog Bistro" entertainment kitchen. Yes, this is the house.
