Description

Nestled within the rustic country side of St. Joseph, five minutes from the famous Bathsheba and fifteen minutes from the beautiful west coast beaches lies Chimborazo Great House. Perched 1,171 feet above sea level, this historic 1700's estate boasts picturesque views of the countryside and eastern coastline. In true colonial style, the main house boasts 3 bedrooms, 3 bathroom poised in all its grandeur boasting coral stone walls, grand windows, wooden floors, intricate trims, wooden shutters and antique, contemporary furnishings that take centre stage. The Great House also comprises the living and dining room, family room, library and study, and modern kitchen. All 3 bedrooms in the main house feature window seats and ceiling fans. An additional 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms can be found in the cottage on property of this sanctuary. The expansive gardens with multiple entertainment areas are perfect for afternoon picnics, dinner parties, cocktails or simply snuggling with a good book. Set in the tree tops overlooking the country side is the estate pool, sun deck and wrap around terrace. The highest plantation property on the island set on 8.25 acres of extensive, well manicured grounds, an orchard and pasture with several entertaining areas including a 90 ft deck and free form estate pool. Great House - Approx. 5,203 SQ. FT. Cottage - Approx. 1,960 SQ. FT.
