Description

Discover this magnificent view home in the highly desirable Culver Crest neighborhood of Culver City. This Mid-Century gem sits on an expansive 12,000+ sq. ft. lot, offering 3 bedrooms and 2 baths with breathtaking, unobstructed views stretching from the Pacific Ocean in the west to the Hollywood Hills in the east. The natural wood ceilings throughout bring a sense of coziness and warmth to the space. The home has been thoughtfully upgraded for energy efficiency and modern comfort. Recent renovations include a remodeled bathroom, a new walk-in closet in the primary suite, and updated flooring. The versatile layout officially lists two bedrooms, but the upstairs office, equipped with a closet and private exit, can easily serve as a third bedroom, guest room, or home office. The primary suite offers a romantic retreat with stunning city views and an outdoor sitting area, while the second downstairs bedroom also captures beautiful cityscapes. Step outside the living room onto a deck perfect for al fresco dining under the stars, and enjoy serene city and ocean vistas from multiple balconies. This exceptional property combines the best of Culver City living with a peaceful, scenic setting. Make this your own Culver City oasis-contact me today for a private showing!
