Description

This fabulous, spacious apartment is right in the heart of Corfu Town, with a large balcony overlooking the historic square. On the first floor, this large gracious apartment is in need of general renovation and refurbishment. It has a long balcony at the front, overlooking the Town Hall square, and windows on three sides to allow plenty of light to flood inside. In its original condition, the apartment has several interlinking rooms, and needs reconfiguring to turn it into a comfortable home to today's standards. The present owners have already prepared plans along these lines to create a three bedroom apartment with two bathrooms. There would be a good sized living room and kitchen at the front opening onto the balcony. Properties of this size and quality and in this prestigious location rarely come onto the market, so this is well worth viewing.
