Description

Gorgeous, unobstructed views highlight this updated midcentury modern home in Brentwood Hills! Ideal flow for living and entertaining. Picturesque pool and spacious grassy area create an inviting backyard. This home has it all. Stunning rooms for entertaining including a large dining area, living room and kitchen with extraordinary views. The sophisticated kitchen is equipped with state-of-the-art appliances, and has plenty of space for cooking, relaxing and gathering with family and friends. Abundant natural light floods the thoughtfully designed floor plan, which includes six bedrooms and four updated bathrooms, all with closet and storage space galore. Although public records indicate five bedrooms, an in-person visit will reveal six complete bedrooms, including two on the main level. On the upper level, the primary suite features a beautifully updated primary bathroom, a sitting area, and three large closets. Beyond the primary suite, the additional five bright and airy bedrooms offer numerous possibilities. Two substantial offices on the main level provide an ideal environment for remote work. A loft area serves as a versatile space for gaming, reading or relaxing. The excellent floor plan provides privacy and generous spaces to make your own. Even more storage is found in the large laundry room. Step outside to the exquisite backyard, complete with a pool and expansive grassy areas, enhanced by breathtaking views. This property is a true oasis within the city. Endless opportunities to enjoy, host gatherings with family and friends, take in the mountain view all without leaving the city. This prime westside location provides easy access to hiking trails, mountain biking, the ocean, restaurants, shopping, the Getty, theaters, downtown, and the airport. A must see to truly appreciate the limitless possibilities. Move-in and experience Southern California living at its best!
