Description

Caribbean Wind - If the dream is owning a Beachfront Home on Virgin Gorda, read on! Caribbean Wind is an exceptional five-bedroom beachfront villa in the coveted Mahoe Bay, Virgin Gorda, now available for sale. Nestled directly on the pristine beach at Mahoe Bay, Caribbean Wind provides breathtaking panoramic views of crystal-clear turquoise waters and powder-soft white sand. Mahoe Bay is renowned for its calm, protected waters, making it perfect for swimming, paddleboarding, and especially snorkeling. The vibrant coral reef just offshore teems with colorful marine life, offering one of the best snorkeling experiences in the British Virgin Islands, right at your doorstep. Caribbean Wind offers unparalleled space, privacy, and comfort. Recently renovated to the highest standards, this stunning property boasts every modern amenity while maintaining its tropical charm. This private retreat features a sparkling pool, lush tropical gardens, and exclusive beach access. Within the Estate is a semi-private tennis court, it offers recreation and relaxation in equal measure. The soothing sounds of gentle waves and refreshing ocean breezes create a serene and inviting atmosphere, ideal for a tranquil island lifestyle. Multiple seating areas provide ample space for entertaining or quiet relaxation, while the entertainment center offers a large TV and Wi-Fi for indoor enjoyment. The fully-equipped kitchen with extensive appliances and a center island bar opens to both the formal dining area and a covered patio for al fresco poolside dining. Each of the five spacious bedrooms includes a private bath and patio. On the ground floor, adjacent to the great room, twin bedrooms can be accessed from the master suite or the patio, making this villa perfect for families with young children. For couple or teenage kids requiring more privacy there are two bedroom/bathroom suites situated in a pod to the other side of the great room. The Grand Master Suite is accessible via stairs to the second level from the pool patio and offers glorious ocean, island and sunset views from its elevated position. An attached living area also converts into an additional bedroom, along with an en-suite bathroom featuring an indoor/outdoor shower. Head further upstairs for an elevated cocktail terrace and even more spectacular sunset views! On the practical front, there's a spacious garage, double laundry facility and plenty of storage. This exceptional home is connected to the Estate's automatic back up generator and public desal water supply. Caribbean Wind at Mahoe Bay is more than just a villa; it is a rare opportunity to own a piece of paradise in one of the Caribbeans most sought-after locations. Whether as a luxurious private residence or an investment property with strong rental potential, this villa offers an unparalleled island living experience.
