Description

Welcome home to this charming one family home on a quiet street! The first floor features a finished porch area, sprawling living room with wood-burning fireplace, an eat-in kitchen with plenty of counter space, two large bedrooms and a full bath! The second level features one extra-large room and a second full bath! Additional features include a full finished basement with outside entrance, an extra-long driveway for parking multiple cars with a completely private fenced in yard, and one car garage! Many upgrades include a replaced gas boiler, new gas hot water heater, wood-burning fireplace in the living room, and chimney with a brand-new liner and cap. Conveniently located near the Hempstead LIRR station! This is a great opportunity to own your own one family home, or to have an investment property to use as a rental.
