Description

This charming house with four bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms. Being sold as is. The welcoming entryway opens to a spacious layout with hardwood floors throughout, showcasing architectural details. The kitchen offers ample cabinetry and countertop space, providing plenty of storage and preparation areas. It also benefits from natural light and a ceiling fan. The primary bedroom is a sizable room with hardwood flooring and access to the spacious bathroom, which boasts subway tile walls. The additional three bedrooms provide versatile spaces. Home has two separate electric meters and has been used as a multi-unit-could be an in-law suite.The home sits on an approximately 0.5-acre lot with mature, well-maintained landscaping and a charming brick exterior. The covered porch offers a tranquil space to enjoy the outdoors. This property presents an ideal living space with its combination of comfortable and functional features, as well as its curb appeal and generous lot size.
