Description

St. Ann Experience the best of coastal living – create your own luxury escape on Jamaica’s beautiful North Coast by purchasing this charming fixer-upper 3bd 3br house that has a bonus cottage on the property as well. This cottage, with it’s own private entrance, would be desirable for guests or generating short/long term rental income. This unique property is bursting with opportunities and has huge potential. Not only is it situated just a short walk from the beach, it’s close to various attractions, restaurants, the Runaway Bay Golf Club and also great location in between Montego Bay and Ocho Rios. In addition, you could also easily restore the pool to create your own private oasis! Interesting points to note: this property has a blackberry tree and is neighbouring the new luxury development, Bahari, which is on the same road, Though this home needs updating, the solid structure and prime location make it a smart investment for those with vision. Whether you're looking to renovate for resale, rental, or your own coastal retreat, this property offers the rare combination of space, location, and potential. Call to schedule a viewing and make your best offer!
