Description

One of few remaining beachfront plots on Almyros beach, with a building licence already in place. Located just across the road from Almyros beach, this plot of land is almost entirely flat making it an easy location for construction. A building licence has been issued for a 187m² villa with four bedrooms and bathrooms, with a 70m² swimming pool. The licence is included in the sale price. Almyros beach is one of the longest sandy beaches on the island, with crystal clear waters and a selection of seaside restaurants and bars.
