Description

Fayence canton, old oil mill from the 14th century At the foot of the village, discover this magnificent 14th-century oil mill, fully renovated with quality materials. Its authenticity is sure to charm you: vaulted cellars, spacious interior volumes, and no less than 7 bedrooms, each with its own shower room, to comfortably accommodate the whole family. Added to this are a charming caretaker's house and a stone guest house, perfect for hosting guests independently. Its wooded garden of more than 4 hectares is one of the major assets of the property. Enhanced by a pond fed by a natural spring, it offers an ideal setting conducive to leisurely strolls Agency fees payable by vendor
