Description

Welcome to 7541 Hutchinson Street, a well-maintained home built in 1915, located in the heart of Regent Square. This home has the charm that many buyers look for with original hardwood floors, fireplaces (3 decorative, 1 gas), built-in cabinets, subway tile, and original woodwork throughout. It also features a backyard with a privacy fence, a sunroom on the 2nd floor, and a 4th bedroom with a deck on the third floor which was added in the late 1990s. A favorite feature is the "bonus room" found where you would expect the landing to be between the 1st and 2nd floors. This landing is large enough to have housed the seller's favorite books and furniture to make a reading room. Other updates include a new roof (2024), new kitchen (2024), new windows (2019). Also included is a second refrigerator (basement) and two plug-in fireplaces. All information is deemed reliable but not guaranteed and should be independently verified by the Buyer.
