Description

Welcome to 2703 Burham Street, a move-in ready gem in Pittsburgh's South Side Slopes offering 3 bedrooms and 2 full baths. Inside, a bright living room with stone fireplace and new flooring flows to a spacious dining area and a beautifully updated kitchen with butcher block counters, stainless appliances, island seating, and a picture window framing skyline views, including the Cathedral of Learning. Upstairs, bedrooms feature generous storage and updated baths with a double vanity and tiled shower. A finished lower level offers laundry and flexible living space, plus additional storage in the basement. Outside, enjoy a covered porch with sweeping city views and rare green space. With fresh finishes, stylish updates, and a walkable location just minutes from Carson Street, Downtown, hospitals, and universities, this South Side Slopes home blends comfort, convenience, and breathtaking views.
