Description

Located on a large corner lot in the desirable Highland Park area, this older home is a true project with endless potential. While it needs significant work to restore it to its former grandeur, it retains its original character with beautiful hardwood floors and trim, stained-glass details, beautiful leaded glass front door, sunroom off of the Family room, pocket doors, and a window seat on the landing. A true project for those with vision this home offers a solid foundation for a stunning restoration. Large rooms with high ceilings, 5 bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths. The property also features a fenced-in backyard and a detached two-car garage and parking pad, adding both function and charm. Also in a prime location minutes from Universities, Hospitals, Pittsburgh Zoo, and Restaurants. With the right vision and renovation, this home can be restored to showcase its historic beauty in one of the city's most sought-after neighborhoods.
