Description

Imagine sipping your morning coffee on the front or back porch, where mountain views stretch wide and peace settles in. This is a kind of relaxation that feels rare these days. Inside, this thoughtfully designed home welcomes you with a spacious split-bedroom floor plan and an upstairs bonus room that flexes to your lifestyle whether you need a private office, a cozy guest suite, or a creative retreat. The sellers have poured care into every detail, blending stylish updates with timeless comfort. Gleaming hardwood floors flow through most of the home, while the split plan ensures a private master suite retreat. In the kitchen, updates create an open connection to the living room and views to the back deck perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying everyday life. Sparkling countertops, a gas stovetop, and newer appliances elevate the heart of the home, while a reverse osmosis water system brings added peace of mind. Storage abounds with multiple walk-in closets, a spacious bonus room, and an oversized garage with extra concrete poured to extend the driveway next to the home. Even the details shine: the laundry room is tucked off the kitchen, the shared bathroom features fresh ship-lap, a new vanity, mirror, and a fiberglass tub that's tiled to the ceiling. Updated lighting throughout the home adds warmth and charm. Lovingly maintained and move-in ready, this home feels brand new without the wait. Nestled close to town yet offering a relaxed country setting, it's a place where comfort and convenience truly meet.
