Description

Spacious Family Home Near the Ocean Embrace peace and space in this unique family home, set amid the lush greenery of nature and the tranquil De Gruis Nature Reserve. Enjoy sunny days and starry night skies in a home filled with light and warmth — where every corner exudes a sense of calm and comfort. Perfectly positioned in the heart of Franskraal and close to the ocean, this spacious home offers ample accommodation for the whole family. A sunny, self-contained flatlet provides an ideal retreat for grandparents or guests, completing this picture of harmony and natural beauty. This inviting home (400m²) offers comfort, space, and coastal charm. The spacious lounge with its cozy fireplace creates a warm atmosphere for family gatherings, while the well-fitted kitchen and large scullery provide practical convenience. An adjoining braai and entertainment room opens through glass doors onto a secluded backyard — the perfect setting for relaxed outdoor living. Nearby, the double garage offers easy access to both the house and the separate flatlet. The home features four bedrooms, including a main bedroom that opens through sliding doors onto a private balcony, welcoming the fresh ocean breeze and the soothing sound of the nearby sea. The remaining bedrooms offer ample cupboard space and share two full bathrooms. The property is enclosed on three sides, with a well-kept garden and neat paving adding to its charm. Security features include burglar alarms, security gates, and safety doors, ensuring peace of mind.* 1500 litre watertank* 2 Geysers* Safe in Garage
