Description

A beautifully refurbished four-bedroom Victorian end-of-terrace home offering spacious and versatile accommodation, finished to a high specification with four bathrooms, two terraces, and a superb open-plan kitchen. This exceptional Victorian family home has been meticulously refurbished and extended to create a residence of remarkable quality and style. Completed to a high specification approximately eleven years ago and maintained in pristine condition, it offers a perfect balance of period character and modern comfort. The ground floor presents a welcoming entrance leading to an impressive double reception room, filled with natural light. A separate sitting room can be closed off to provide a fifth bedroom if required, offering flexibility for guests or home working. At the rear is an open-plan kitchen and dining area, finished with a striking marble floor, a large skylight, and underfloor heating. Built-in ceiling speakers and comfort cooling add further refinement, while French doors open to a charming patio garden. The property provides four bedrooms and a study, with four stylish bathrooms, two of which are en-suite and feature underfloor heating. The principal rooms benefit from comfort cooling and heating. Two terraces and a first-floor balcony offer inviting outdoor spaces for relaxation or entertaining. Additional features include two converted vaults. One is a bathroom and the other a well-appointed utility room. Situation Warwick Way lies in central Pimlico, convenient for many local amenities in Pimlico village. Additional lifestyle conveniences on Pimlico Road, Eccleston Yard, Elizabeth Street and Sloane Square are close to hand. The transport links are superb with nearby Victoria station offering mainline train services, Circle, District, Victoria lines and the Gatwick Express. Property Ref Number: HAM-61656
