Description

Waterfront Living Near Fire Island Shores Welcome to your serene waterfront retreat, where the gentle sound of waves and views of Fire Island create a peaceful escape from the everyday. This spacious four-bedroom home features a bright office, inviting living room, and an eat-in kitchen ready for your personal touch. Enjoy 75 feet of bulkhead and easy access to the Moriches Inlet—perfect for boating, kayaking, or simply relaxing by the water. The property also includes a garage and leased solar panels (only $109/month), combining comfort with efficiency. Nestled in a quiet coastal community, this home offers a rare blend of privacy, potential, and proximity to Fire Island's natural beauty. With a little updating, it can truly shine as your year-round residence or weekend getaway.
