Description

A well-priced, three-story brick row home in Jersey City is a rare find - especially one that includes parking and private outdoor space. Welcome to 15 Towers Street, where charming curb appeal sets the tone from the moment you arrive. A paver driveway and perfectly maintained concrete walkway and stairs lead you into this 18-foot-wide brick home, offering both space and versatility. Inside, you'll immediately appreciate the home's layout and potential. The first level features a studio-style space complete with a full kitchen, laundry room and full bathroom - ideal for a home office, extended-stay guests, or excellent rental potential. The main living level boasts an open-concept floor plan with Italian tile flooring in kitchen, spacious living and dining rooms with red oak hard wood flooring, and a convenient half bath. Sliding glass doors lead out to a large deck overlooking professionally designed garden, creating a perfect indoor-outdoor flow. Upstairs, you'll find three true bedrooms, (each with a closet!), plus a full bathroom. Storage is abundant throughout the home, including three closets and a washer/dryer closet on the lower level, a coat closet, pantry, and custom built-in storage in the dining room, and not one, but TWO closets in the primary bedroom, and a hall linen closet. Additional highlights include a motorized awning over the deck, a patio with lovely Spanish porcelain tile below, and a large ground-level storage shed equipped with electricity!. Enjoy low taxes and NO HOA, all within a short walking distance to the light rail and the exciting redevelopment around JC University that's dynamically reshaping this vibrant Jersey City neighborhood.
