Description

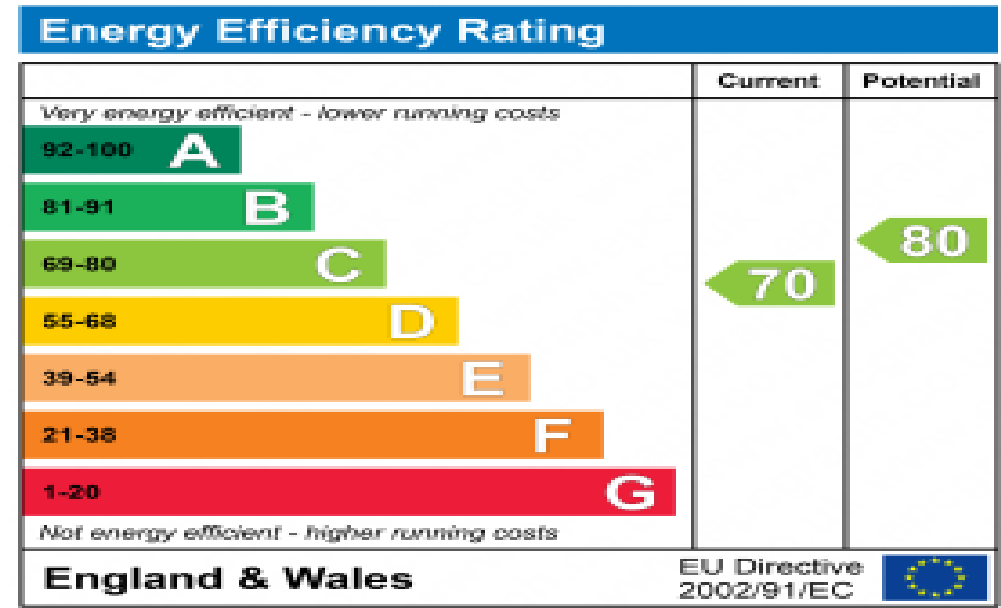

A well-appointed five bedroom family home offering flexible accommodation, wrap-around gardens, and a peaceful position conveniently located between Maidenhead town centre and the renowned village of Bray. Set behind secure gates in a corner plot on prestigious Fishery Road, Lowlands is a detached home offering a practical layout for modern family life. The welcoming entrance hall leads to a choice of bright reception rooms including a living room, formal dining room, and a versatile family room. The kitchen/breakfast room is well fitted with ample cabinetry and benefits from a utility adjacent, and flows naturally into the dining room and out to the rear garden. A study/fifth bedroom and WC complete the ground floor accommodation. The stairs lead via a half landing, which give access to an en-suite bedroom with fitted wardrobes, to a galleried landing. The first floor had a bedroom suite which includes a dressing room and an en suite shower room. Two additional bedrooms share a family bathroom. The gravel driveway with ample parking for multiple vehicles is overlooked by the home office, accessed separately to the main home and converted from the car port. The wrap-around gardens of 0.434 acres are mainly laid to lawn with established trees, shrubs and hedged boundaries offering a good degree of privacy. The setting is calm and secluded, accessed from a private road. There may be further scope for improvement, subject to your own investigations and the necessary consents. Situation Fishery Road is one of Maidenhead's most sought-after addresses, ideally placed between the town centre and the culinary destination of Bray, home to world-famous restaurants including The Fat Duck and The Waterside Inn. The exclusive Soho River House members' club is also nearby. Local leisure facilities include golf at Maidenhead, Marlow and Taplow, a modern sports centre nature reserve at Braywick Park, and water sports at Bray lake and on the Thames. Maidenhead offers extensive shopping and services, and is well connected with direct mainline services to London Paddington and into the West End, City and Canary Wharf via the Elizabeth Line from Maidenhead station (1 mile). Road links are excellent, with the M4 (J8/9) providing easy access to Heathrow, the M25 and central London. The area is well served for both private and state schooling with the nearest primary school, one of the most highly regarded in the local area, just 0.2 miles away (please liaise with the admissions secretary for confirmation of availability of places).
