Description

Tucked among the vineyards in Eastern Klickitat County, this captivating 20-acre property along Vineyard View Drive lives up to its name with sweeping scenic vistas in every direction. With well and septic already installed and building permits underway, the groundwork for your dream home is ready to go. A solar power system is already in place, or you can easily connect to traditional utilities via Six Prong Extension Road, where power access is available. A 22x36 pole building awaits its final touches—just add siding and it becomes the perfect shop or RV shelter while you complete the home build. Every construction supply currently on-site stays with the sale, giving the new owner a head start in bringing this charming home to life. The parcel is mostly fenced and includes a handy storage shed, making this a well-equipped, peaceful retreat surrounded by natural beauty and rural charm. Don't miss your chance to live where the views are as rich as the soil beneath your feet.
