Description

Breathtaking, majestic property in exceptional condition in Guime This exceptional detached villa offers a rare opportunity to own a beautifully renovated property with two independent apartments, each with its own private entrance, set on a large plot with a driveway and stunning views. The main house has been completely renovated from top to bottom, including new electrics, plumbing, tiling throughout, windows, doors, floors, and fresh interior and exterior finishes, all completed to a high standard. Natural light floods every corner of the home, enhancing the sense of space and quality. The villa features four spacious double bedrooms, with one on the ground floor and three on the upper level. The impressive master suite benefits from a private balcony with beautiful open views and a walk-in wardrobe. There are two fully renovated bathrooms, finished with modern tiling and high-end fittings. At the heart of the home is a large open-plan porch with a striking central staircase leading to the upper floor. The very large living room boasts vaulted ceilings, a charming period fireplace, and patio doors opening onto the side gardens, offering additional views and seamless indoor-outdoor living. The fully renovated kitchen is fitted with modern units, quality appliances, and contemporary tiling. It adjoins a separate dining area that opens directly onto the rear garden and tiled patio, complete with an outdoor kitchen/sink installation—ideal for entertaining. An additional utility room is ready for boiler installation and is perfect for outdoor laundry and extra storage. To the side of the property are two independent apartments: A fully renovated studio apartment with fitted kitchen area and bathroom. A second apartment with two bedrooms, one bathroom, storage, and ready for kitchen installation. These apartments are ideal for rental income, guest accommodation, or visiting family members. The plot also includes a large garage with electric doors, suitable for two cars or a workshop, as well as a huge outbuilding/workshop currently used as an aluminium warehouse, offering excellent potential for further income or conversion to alternative uses. Located in the peaceful town of Güime, the property is just a five-minute drive from the beaches of Playa Honda. The village offers a local shop and a traditional bar popular with residents, combining convenience with a relaxed community atmosphere. This is a high-end, move-in-ready property, perfect as a family home, holiday retreat, or investment opportunity—simply bring your furniture and start enjoying everything this outstanding villa has to offer.
