Description

A beautifully presented family home on Furlong Road, set behind a gated entrance with off-street parking and arranged over just three floors. Features include a grand reception room, a Plain English kitchen, five bedrooms and a 70ft garden with Crittall doors from the dining area. Set on Furlong Road, this handsome period house presents a striking façade and the rare advantage of a gated entrance with off-street parking. Unusually arranged over only three floors, the property offers well-balanced living space with generous rooms and a natural flow ideal for family life. On entering the house, you are welcomed by a large and elegant reception room, distinguished by charming arched windows, a log burner and wooden floors throughout. This impressive space leads through to the dining and kitchen area, where a glimpse of the Crittall doors offers an immediate connection to the garden. The Plain English kitchen provides extensive work surfaces, complemented by a drying cupboard, utility room and a downstairs cloakroom fitted with Catchpole & Rye sanitaryware. The dining area is particularly spacious, with the Crittall doors opening directly onto the 70ft rear garden. The first floor features a generous principal bedroom with a large en suite bathroom, alongside a further double bedroom and a well-proportioned family bathroom. The top floor provides three additional bedrooms and a bathroom, creating flexible accommodation suitable for guests, children or home working. Situation Furlong Road is a quiet residential street set within the N7 area of West London, offering a friendly neighbourhood feel with excellent local connectivity. The location benefits from a good selection of nearby shops, cafés and everyday amenities, while open green spaces and local parks are close at hand. Well served by public transport and with convenient road links, Furlong Road provides easy access to surrounding areas and central London, making it an appealing setting for commuters and families alike.
