Description

Welcome to this charming brick Cape Cod situated just one street away from South Hills Country Club. Having been lovingly maintained over the years, you can sense the pride of ownership as you pull up to the front. Manicured planting beds, stately brick, and a slate roof with not one shingle out of place. This home offers incredible versatility with a primary bedroom option on either the first or second floor. All rooms are generously sized, creating a spacious and comfortable feel throughout. The heart of the home features an easy-flowing great room and dining area, separated by an open staircase with custom iron railings. The kitchen boasts vintage cabinetry, an additional eating nook, and is filled with natural light. Enjoy outdoor living on the covered side porch or the large covered rear porch overlooking an expansive, table-top flat backyard- perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The full basement provides ample storage space in addition to a game room or bonus living space. Don't miss this opportunity to own a classic home in a choice location with timeless character and modern livability! New water heater 2023, New A/C 2020. Slate roof inspected April 2025.
