Description

Discover an extraordinary opportunity to own a piece of history with this Italianate home, built in 1878 and steeped in a rich narrative. As the only free-standing single-family residence in private hands within the downtown capital grid, this property exemplifies exquisite architectural craftsmanship with its museum-quality condition that showcases the dedication of its current owners. The residence boasts a stunning parlor, inviting sitting room, formal dining area, and a versatile office/bedroom on the main floor. The upper level features three spacious bedrooms and a nursery, complemented by a large dressing room. Additionally, a walk-out basement offers expansive office space with seamless access to beautiful bricked gardens. Located mere steps from major state, city, and county offices, and just six blocks from DOCO/Golden One Arena, this storied residence presents a unique blend of historical allure and modern convenience, also zoned for commercial and office use.
