Description

Set among mature orchards and wide open skies, this equestrian estate is the kind of place that immediately feels special. It offers space, privacy, and a lifestyle that's both refined and relaxed, where luxury meets the freedom to truly live. The home is expansive yet comfortable, featuring five bedrooms and seven bathrooms, including two stunning primary suites that create an ideal flow for hosting, extended stays, or simply relaxing. The main living spaces are filled with natural light and designed for gathering, unwinding, and enjoying the beauty of the setting from every angle. Indoor living opens seamlessly to an incredible outdoor experience. The expansive deck is a true centerpiece, featuring a Michael Phelps swim spa positioned perfectly for year-round use, built-in heaters, and a retractable roof that allows the space to adapt effortlessly to every season. Evenings are best spent gathered around the gas firepit, while the outdoor kitchen makes entertaining feel easy and intentional. Downstairs, a fully finished basement adds an entirely different layer to the home. Whether it becomes your home gym, theater, game space, or all three, it's designed for fun, wellness, and connection without ever leaving home. Beyond the home itself, the property delivers on lifestyle. Horses are welcome, the orchards add character and beauty, and a dedicated RV garage provides rare flexibility for travel, toys, or storage. This is a place where mornings feel calm, days feel expansive, and evenings are meant to be enjoyed. At $2.2M, this is more than a home. It's an equestrian estate built for living well, entertaining often, and settling into a life that feels both elevated and effortless.
