Description

This striking Mid-Century Modern, located in Altadena's Millard Canyon neighborhood, captures sweeping views and reflects a design approach centered on light, volume and connection to the landscape. The open floor plan unfolds across four bedrooms and two and one-half baths, with generous family and dining areas, classic period kitchen and formal living room. Architectural details - rich wood paneling, stone fireplaces, hardwood floors, dramatic staircase and a two-story wall of glass - are featured throughout, reinforcing the home's strong indoor-outdoor sensibility. Decks extend living spaces outward, creating a seamless transition to verdant, park-like grounds framed by mature trees and established plantings, along with a detached two-car garage. The site offers a rare sense of privacy and calm, seemingly removed while remaining just minutes from popular shops, restaurants and major thoroughfares. Here is an exceptional opportunity to own a character property defined by thoughtful composition and a remarkable natural setting.
