Description

Extremely rare first-floor corner three-bedroom residence with direct Intracoastal and marina views. This light-filled unit offers the privacy and feel of a single-family home, with stunning water views upon entry. The fully renovated open-concept kitchen with stainless steel appliances is ideal for entertaining, and all bathrooms have been renovated including full impact hurricane glass throughout. Additional features include three large walk-in closets and a private storage locker. Located in the highly desirable Harbourside community with marina access, resort-style amenities, walkability to shops and restaurants, and the public beach just one mile away. Exceptional location and lifestyle.
