Description

Old Palo Alto estate completed in 2012 with Spanish-inspired architecture honoring this prestigious neighborhood of legacy homes. Hand-selected materials, exposed beam ceilings, custom tilework, and refined finishes across nearly 8,000 square feet. 3 levels designed for grand entertaining and everyday living with formal living and dining rooms, private office, study center, caterers kitchen, recreation and media spaces, wine cellar, bar, fitness center, and spa-like amenities including steam shower. 6 bedroom suites include a primary suite with in-room spa bath plus a guest suite accessed from the rear yard. The gated corner lot creates a private resort environment with pool and spa, bocce court, and heated covered terrace with fire pit. Minutes from leading Silicon Valley tech centers, Stanford University, and acclaimed Palo Alto schools. Enduring quality and an exceptional lifestyle in one of the areas most sought-after neighborhoods.
