Description

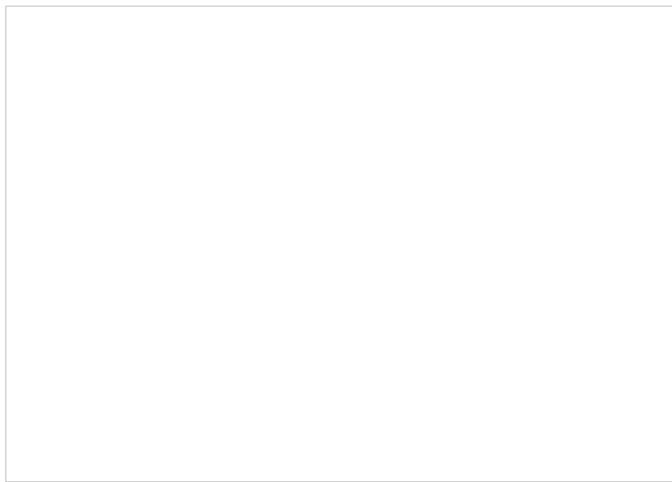

This extensively remodeled single-family home in the heart of downtown Bremerton offers the comfort, efficiency, and systems of a new home while preserving its original vintage charm. Original wood floors on the main level create a warm, inviting atmosphere, enhanced by abundant natural light and southern exposure. The spacious kitchen is the true heart of the home, open to the living and dining areas and featuring a sunny breakfast nook that also functions beautifully as a work-from-home space. A rare and highly desirable downtown floor plan includes a downstairs family room and primary bedroom with a private bath-features seldom found in this location. In total, the home offers 3 bedrooms and 2 baths with a thoughtful, flexible layout ideal for everyday living or entertaining. Major upgrades provide peace of mind, including a new composition roof, all-new electrical and plumbing, new insulation, and an efficient HVAC system with dual mini-splits upstairs and down. Step outside to a new hardwood deck and a large, partially fenced yard with level southern exposure-perfect for gardening, entertaining, or relaxing, with room for up to six raised beds. Private alley access provides parking for two cars. Enjoy convenient access minutes to downtown shops, hidden local restaurants, theaters, waterfront, and the Bremerton/Seattle ferry an ideal location for commuters or shipyard workers. A rare opportunity to own a fully remodeled home! Schedule a showing today!
