Description

4430 Brownsville Rd is a home not only to be toured, but to be experienced. The stately Whitehall stone tudor is perfectly positioned across from the picturesque fairways of South Hills Country Club. Inside you'll find timeless craftsmanship meeting refined elegance. Revel in the chandeliers and lighting fixtures curated by Francis Nowalk, recognized for his meticulous work at Heinz Hall, among other local landmarks - each piece adding artistry and warm ambience throughout the home. A sprawling 4-bedroom, 2.5-bath estate showcases original leaded inlay and stained-glass windows, custom pinch-pleated silk drapery, and stunning architectural details at every turn. The kitchen features a breakfast area with an abundance of storage, while the expansive great room offers custom built-in cabinetry, a wet bar, and a delightful pocket door leading to the grand foyer. Entertain in style with original hardwood floors gracing the living and dining rooms and marble flooring with custom inlays elevating the foyer's dramatic entry. The serene owner's retreat impresses with gleaming hardwoods, Juliet balconies, a cathedral ceiling with recessed lighting, and a custom walk-in wardrobe, also crowned with its own cathedral ceiling. Enjoy peaceful mornings on the covered front porch, sipping coffee while taking in sweeping views of perfectly manicured greens and rolling terrain. Additional highlights include a large, clean basement (with your classic Pittsburgh potty) and multiple storage rooms. The spacious 2-car detached garage has extra an storage area above- and is steps from the back door. Refined, elegant, and rich with character, this remarkable home offers unmatched views, exceptional craftsmanship, and a lifestyle of sophistication.
