Description

Welcome to 348 Thompson Street, nestled in the Hallmark-Camelot neighborhood, a well established Fort Worth neighborhood just 15-minutes from downtown! This thoughtfully updated all-brick mid century home blends classic charm with modern comfort, offering an easy place to settle in and feel at home. Renovated in 2022, the property features inviting curb appeal, a warm interior with a wood-burning fireplace, smart home touches, and tasteful upgrades throughout. The backyard provides a peaceful retreat with a covered patio, privacy fencing, and a powered shed ideal for a home office, creative space, or extra storage. Just minutes from shopping, dining, parks, and major highways, this centrally located home puts the best of Fort Worth within easy reach-schedule a tour and come experience the charm for yourself.
