Description

Generous detached family home with triple length garage, 114 ft westerly facing garden and fun celebrity connection. 3400 plus sq ft internally. A generously proportioned family home which has been extended over the years to offer accommodation across three floors. You enter in a large hallway which still has the bar area that was installed by a former celebrity resident, comedy actor "Sid James" At the front of the house is a 21ft reception room, to the rear a further reception room, 29ft kitchen/breakfast room and a dining area linking the two together. The main bedroom boasts a walk-in wardrobe (former bedroom) and an ensuite bathroom. There are two other double bedrooms on this floor and a family bathroom. Across the top floor you have two more double bedroom, bathroom and a utility room. Outside Front; blockwork driveway providing parking for several cars. Garage; triple length 39ft long garage/storage with an additional utility room at the end. Rear; over 114 ft long with an envious westerly facing aspect and backing onto the Ealing riding School. Landscaped with patio and lawn area with mature plant borders. Access from the two sets of doors from the rear reception room, side door and secure pathway leading to the front. Situation Located centrally in Ealing on Gunnersbury Avenue ideal for local transport with several nearby stations which include Ealing Common (0.5 miles) Acton Town (0.6 miles) and Ealing Broadway (Approx. 0.9 miles). Travelling south by road is the Chiswick roundabout with the A4/M4 into central London and out to Heathrow. Venturing north, Gunnersbury Avenue turns into Hanger Lane which takes you to the gyratory from which you can access the A40 and M40 and further north the M1. Ealing Broadway is the main shopping area which hosts a plethora of shops, bars, restaurants and night life. Ealing Broadway station boasts the Elizabeth, District, Central lines and the overground GWR service out to Reading and Oxford. Property Ref Number: HAM-62660
