Description

This expansive three bedroom, two bathroom co-op is located in a well cared for, recently updated building at 64-11 99th Street in the heart of Rego Park. The apartment offers an impressive amount of space and a highly functional layout that is rarely found. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a sun filled living area with a defined dining space, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The oversized kitchen provides abundant room for cooking, storage, and gathering. Each of the three bedrooms is generously proportioned and can comfortably accommodate king sized beds. The primary bedroom includes its own full private bathroom, offering added comfort and separation. The building is impeccably maintained and features a modernized lobby, elevator access, and on site laundry facilities. Parking is available with a waitlist. Conveniently positioned near the M and R subway lines, Q60 bus, and within easy reach of the E and F trains as well as the LIRR, this location makes commuting throughout the city and beyond effortless. Major roadways including the Grand Central Parkway, Long Island Expressway, and Van Wyck Expressway are also nearby. With close proximity to highly regarded schools, shopping, dining, grocery stores, and major thoroughfares, this residence offers exceptional convenience in one of Queens' most sought after neighborhoods.
