Description

The ultimate Spanish Revival on one of Outpost Estates' most sought-after streets, walled and gated for exceptional privacy. Enter through the front gate into a stunning courtyard with a tranquil fountain, lush landscaping, and dramatic nighttime lighting. From the moment you step inside, you're greeted by a breathtaking, head-on city view. The floor plan is ideal-gracious, flowing, and beautifully proportioned throughout. The living room is a true pleasure to relax in, while the spectacular, remodeled chef's kitchen, (which is an absolute pleasure to create in), opens seamlessly to an expansive family room, creating an extraordinary space for everyday living and unforgettable entertaining. These rooms spill out to a generous terrace overlooking the city lights. The primary suite is a private retreat with a sitting room, terrace, remodeled bath, and a large walk-in closet-all enjoying the captivating views. A fully self-contained guest suite offers its own kitchen, living room, bedroom, and bath. Spacious, warm, and inviting, this quintessential California hacienda offers serene living in a peaceful, quiet setting.
